Pure Vegan Heaven, Phuket

If I am on the road, I frequently use the App „Happy Cow“ to find vegan or vegetarian-friendly restaurants.

During my 30-days travel through Thailand (28th October 2016 - 24th November 2016) I have found a cosy little vegan restaurant in Phuket called “Pure Vegan Heaven” using the app.

Location:

“Pure Vegan Heaven” is located in a really fancy street where you also can find Thai boxing schools and several gyms. Hence, almost all restaurants along the road offer healthy food. Unfortunately, it is a bit difficult to find the hidden restaurant in the small alley.

Indoor and outside the restaurant has limited seats. It is cosy and gives you a special homy-feeling. However, if you are going to visit the restaurant with a larger group, I recommend to make a reservation before you arrive. "Pure Vegan Heaven" is clean and neat. There is a fridge inside where you can see all the fresh ingredients they use.

Price and Service:

Prices are appropriate for western visitors but might be a bit over for local people. The staff is very friendly and try to comfort you in every possible way. The portions are satisfying and filling. If you have any food allergies I am sure they will help you to find something suitable from the menu. Make sure to check the restaurants Facebook page to find out more about their menu. You can find the link below the article.

Food:

The food is fresh and all smoothies are made in front of your eyes. Normally, they won't, but ask them not to add sugar into the smoothies - just to be on the safe side if you don't like additional. I had the falafel bowl and the mousse au chocolate. It was really delicious and I can recommend to go there if you around the corner.
